

Products intended for animals but which do not fall within the scope of a medicinal product definition (dietetics, vitamins, mineral and cosmetic products and diagnostics) are subject to the simplified authorisation procedure in the ISCVBM according to the Act No 166/1999 On veterinary care, as last amended. An authorisation decision is valid for five years and an authorisation holder can apply for its renewal or variations Registration of veterinary devices